

LINDY HOPS OVER WAR ZONE

MEXICAN ARMY CLOSING IN ON REBEL FORCES

Big Battle Probably Will be Fought at Torreon.

TROOPS ON MOVE

Insurrectionists Rule Ciudad Juarez; Defenders Interned.

By International News Service
The first big battle of the Mexican revolution probably will be fought within a few days on the Coalhuila-Durango border near Torreon, according to all indications today.

Calles Masses 41,000 Troops.
General Juan Andres Almazan, Mexico's "young Napoleon," told International News Service in an exclusive interview at Monterrey that the federals are steadily closing in upon Gen. Escobar's rebel forces at Torreon.

CALLES LEADS FEDERAL ARMY

MEXICO CITY, March 9.—Former President Plutarco Elias Calles, one of the two warriors upon whom rest the destinies of the government, left early this morning for Irapuato to take field command of the army of the center.

The other military pillar of the government, Gen. Juan Andres Almazan, the "brilliant young Napoleon of modern Mexico," will command the army of the north. These combined armies will number 41,000 men, the mightiest military force ever assembled in Mexico.

Troop trains are moving northward over every railway line crowded with soldiers, machine guns and light artillery. When War Secretary Calles takes the field in person there will be 41,000 federals holding a line across Mexico from a point northwest of Guadalajara to Monterrey.

The important border port of Ciudad Juarez, which was taken by the rebels yesterday in a brief but sharp action, was quiet today. The rebels are administering the affairs of the city and promised to maintain order. The 300 defenders are interned at Fort Bliss upon United States soil.

The revolution now centers in northwestern Mexico. The southern and eastern sections have been cleared of rebels.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR., wins his fight in the Standard Oil company of Indiana and Col. Stewart is defeated.

There have been few more bitter fights in the history of high finance.

ON TUESDAY, John H. Perry, learned editor of Reading, Pa., Jacksonville, Fla., and other places, predicting the Indiana result, said:

"It is hard to fight dollars. In fact, you can't do it."

He added as an afterthought:

"It is absolutely impossible to fight dollars when they happen to be right."

Col. Coblentz, of San Francisco and New York, remarked:

"To the victor belong the oils."

COL. STEWART, bidding farewell to Standard Oil of Indiana, and probably preparing to run some other big oil company, had the satisfaction of reporting financial success for 1928.

In the last year Standard Oil of Indiana has earned more than $32,000,000 profit, or 15.76 per cent on its capital. Earnings of the company increased more than $50,000,000, as compared with 1927.

PRESIDENT HOOVER, who summons the extra session of congress to meet on April 15, is not an emotional man. But he must have been moved on writing the words, "Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare," etc.

After you have done farm chores as a small boy there must be considerable satisfaction in writing, "Now, therefore, I, president."

ON APRIL 15 farmers will have their day and congress will tell them, if it can, how to put a disorganized industry on a substantial, paying basis.

GUARD WOUNDED IN POTTSVILLE, PA., JAILBREAK

Alvarez Miquel, 21, Killer, Makes Way Freedom.

CONDEMNED MAN

Two Prison Attaches Held at Bay as He Flees.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., March 9.—After shooting and wounding one guard at the Schuylkill county jail and holding at bay two others at the point of a gun, Alvarez Miquel, 21, son of a wealthy Cuban sugar plantation owner, made his way to freedom early today.

Miquel made his successful break for liberty about 4 a. m. when he called a guard to his cell, made him open the door and then shot Roy Green, a second guard who attempted to interfere. A third guard was also quelled at the sight of the gun and the Cuban made his escape unmolested.

State police and county squads are combing the district near here for Miquel, who was recently convicted of first degree murder in connection with the shooting of Louise Jacks, of this city, about 18 months ago. Miquel was to have died in the electric chair next week under terms of the original sentence, but he had been reprieved to allow his case to be appealed to the state supreme court.

JURY CONVICTS COUNTY MOTORIST

F. H. Harrold, Columbiana, was found guilty on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated by a jury in probate court at Lisbon last night. Sentence has not been passed by Judge Lodge Riddle.

Harrold was arrested December 24, 1928, by Deputy Marshal R. G. Mullin, of Columbiana.

Verner Longnecker, Columbiana, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor, was found guilty following a trial before Judge Riddle today. He was fined $200 and costs. Bond was furnished in order to permit him to carry the case to the common pleas court on error.

The Ohio river, which reached a crest of 24.4 feet Thursday, continued to recede today, falling at the rate of one-tenth of a foot an hour. The stage at Dam No. 8 registered 20.5 feet at noon.

The steamer Betsy Ann will touch the local wharf tonight, enroute from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati. The Liberty, bound for Wheeling, will also arrive here tonight. The towboat, Crusier, passed here this morning with six barges of coal for the Weirton Steel company at Weirton.

SALEM WOMAN DIES OF STROKE

SALEM, O., March 9.—Mrs. Mary Elizabeth De Roads, 78, widow of David De Roads, died of a paralytic stroke today in her home in the Lisbon road.

Mrs. De Roads, who lived here for many years, leaves one son, Harold De Roads, of Salem.

KILLER'S GIRL SEEKS REWARD

CANTON, O., March 9.—Miss Gladys Espy, of New Castle, Pa., today entered a request for part of the $1,000 reward which was offered for the capture of Edward "Eddie" Kaltenbaugh, Grove City, Pa.

Kaltenbaugh, a demented farm hand, was employed by John Oser, dairy farmer of Canal Fulton, O. The farm hand killed Mr. and Mrs. Oser in order to steal their automobile and take it to New Castle, hoping to make an impression on Mrs. Espy. Miss Espy gave authorities information which was instrumental in bringing the fugitive's capture about. Kaltenbaugh has been committed to the state asylum at Lima.

MRS. ENOS MOON, WELLSVILLE, DIES

Mrs. Mary Ann Moon, 55, wife of Enos Moon, Wellsville restaurant owner, died in her home in Main street there at 7:50 o'clock this morning, after 10 weeks' illness. The family formerly lived here.

Mrs. Moon leaves one daughter, Mrs. Earl Evans, Wellsville, and three brothers, William and George Dunlap, also of Wellsville, and Frank, of Steubenville.

Funeral services will be held in the home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in charge of the Rev. Harold Post, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Wellsville. Burial will be made in Spring Hill cemetery.

WOMAN INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Mrs. Charles McCafferty, Barber-ton, suffered injuries to her back when the automobile in which she and other members of her family were riding went over an embankment and overturned in Carpenters run along the Youngstown-East Liverpool road, one mile north of the city limits, at 10 o'clock this morning.

Her husband and children were not hurt. The family were brought to East Liverpool where Mrs. McCafferty was treated by a physician at the Travelers' hotel.

BRICKLAYER WILL HOP ACROSS SEA

NEW YORK, March 9.—William Pellegrini, former member of the Italian flying corps and now a member of the Bricklayers' union here, will fly from New York to Berlin some time in the near future. It was announced here today. The flight will be backed by American trade unions.

JIMMY VALENTINE CASE IN OHIO

KENT, O., March 9.—Nineteen years ago a man named Nazareno Poncortti was shot to death in New Haven, Conn.

Today, Peter Maracoli, alias Morris, for the last 12 years a respected and hard working resident of this town, was under arrest, charged with the crime.

Police say Maracoli has confessed, declaring Poncortti rushed him with a knife and he shot in self defense. Maracoli related, according to police, that after the shooting he fled to Canada but later returned to the United States and married in Orange, N. J., in 1916. He came here, obtained employment and remained here with his family.

MILL OPERATOR DIES SUDDENLY

LISBON, O., March 9.—William M. Jones, 79, owner of the Lisbon woolen mill, died suddenly of heart disease today in his home, 331 South Lincoln avenue.

Mr. Jones, who had lived here for 46 years, was also superintendent of the Claypool Brothers' mill at Lima. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Nancy Jones, and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Pritchard and Miss Margaret B. Jones, Lisbon, and Mrs. Pearl Schaller, Cincinnati.

Private funeral services will be held in the home at 2:30 Monday afternoon, in charge of the Rev. E. C. Lake, pastor of the Christian church. Burial will be made in the Lisbon cemetery.

ENGINEER FINED ON THEFT COUNT

Pleading guilty to a charge of larceny in connection with the alleged theft of tools from the plant of the National Drawn Steel company, where he was employed as an engineer, Roy Hall, East End, was fined $10 and costs by Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley this morning. Hall was represented by Attorney Blaine H. Cochran.

Charles C. Golden and J. Larry Wilson, East End, were released on their own recognizance today pending a hearing before Judge Hanley, Monday morning, on a charge of breaking into the home of Frank Dill, Mulberry street, at 1 o'clock this morning.

Dill is in the county jail at Lisbon because of non-payment of a liquor fine.

Auto Kills Ohioan.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—Horace G. Yonker, 69, was fatally injured here last night when he was struck by an automobile said to have been driven by D. C. Holland. Holland was exonerated by police.

ELKRUN MAN IS KILLED BY AUTO IN TEXAS

Leslie D. McCorkhill, Aged 28, Victim of Crash.

STORE MANAGER

Body Will be Buried In Texas, Message Says.

Leslie Deo McCorkhill, 28, chain store manager, formerly of Elkrun township, is dead today at Dallas, Texas, as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. McCorkhill, until about seven years ago, lived with Mr. and Mrs. George Hickman, west of Clarkson.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Jean Harris McCorkhill, and a six-month-old daughter; also one brother, Harold McCorkhill, St. Paul, Minn., and two sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Glass and Miss Dorothy McCorkhill, Chicago. Frank H. Anderson, 1724 Globe street, East End, is an uncle.

The body will be buried in Dallas.

MRS. W. J. GRIMES, AGED 74, DIES

Mrs. Lydia Grimes, 74, wife of Dr. W. J. Grimes, died today of a paralytic stroke in her home in Mulberry street, East End. Besides her husband, she leaves one son, Luther M. Grimes, and a daughter Mrs. E. G. Ronshausen, East Liverpool; five brothers, Police Captain Mason Conley and John Conley, this city; Elmer Conley, Chester; Wiley Conley, Porters Falls, W. Va., and William Conley, Paden City, W. Va., and two sisters Mrs. James Linton Akron, and Mrs. Sadie Keck, Paden City.

Funeral services will be held in the home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, in charge of the Rev. W. H. Baker, pastor of the First Church of Christ. Burial will be made in Riverview cemetery.

LINEMAN THANKS LUCK HE LIVES

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—Alfred D. Herzel, 35, after hanging from a high-tension wire carrying 6,000 volts and then being cut down by city firemen, is thanking his lucky stars that he is alive today. Herzel's hands were charred to the bones, but he was otherwise uninjured. The man is a lineman for a local power company and was repairing a street light when he came in contact with the live-wire. Only 2,000 volts of electricity are used to electrocute murderers at the Ohio State penitentiary.

GASOLINE LETS GO, FOUR HURT

TOLEDO, O., March 9.—One man was in a critical condition in a hospital here and three others were recovering from hurts at their homes today as the result of the explosion of a gasoline tank on a cement mixer here. All of the men were city employees and were engaged in repairing a street. George Fisher, 34, was seriously burned when the flaming gasoline ignited his clothing. The others were only slightly burned.

Lindbergh's flight is to inaugurate an air mail and passenger service between Mexico City and the United States.

LINDY WILL WED AFTER EASTER

MEXICO CITY, March 9.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and Miss Anne Morrow will be married here during the Easter holidays. It was learned today.

The minister who will officiate at the ceremony has already been chosen. It was said, but his name has not been divulged.

It is not known here whether Mrs. Lindbergh, the aviator's mother, will come here for the ceremony.

After saying farewell to his fiancée, Miss Anne Spencer Morrow, daughter of American Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, and to members of her family, the flying colonel began overhauling his great tri-motored plane at Valbuena Flying Field and was soon in the air.

Col. Lindbergh's plane carried nine passengers, including two women, and 12 sacks of mail.

Six sacks of mail were for New York City.

Fearless Confidence Marked.
Col. Lindbergh did not feel any apprehensions over making the long flight northward over a troubled land. His usual fearless confidence was in evidence. He expected to reach

PASTOR SPEAKS ON "JUDGMENT"

"God's nearness is more appreciated when the church is praying," affirmed the Rev. R. C. Beechley, the pastor, at the Pennsylvania Avenue Methodist Episcopal church last night. He urged that the Lord should be sought while He could be found and that He be called upon while He is near.

In addition to preaching the sermon the Rev. Mr. Beechley, accompanied by Miss Lillian Miles, sang "The Great Judgment Morning." The congregational singing was directed by Mrs. Charles Hilsinger.

On Sunday morning he will speak to the children of the Sunday school and adults in what may be deemed a combination sermon. At night his subject will be "The Two Builders."

Young People's night will be celebrated Monday night when Harry Rose, potter, but a licensed minister, will preach.

The invocation last night was made by the Rev. F. I. Dean, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

"We are lost if we seek not the Lord," asserted the Rev. Mr. Beechley. "It is not only our duty, but a privilege to do so, despite the fact that sinful influence is hard."

"We seek the Lord by repentance. The heart must be broken for and from sin. It is likewise a sorrow for sin and a confession of guilt. It is a work of the heart rather than of art. For genuine repentance the sorrow must be because of a realization of the heinousness of the sin committed."

"The time of repentance is now. Now is the accepted time. Now is the day of salvation." To put off seeking the Lord until late in life is to lose much time that could be utilized in the uplift of mankind by the person so seeking.

FORMER PASTOR TO PREACH HERE

His Winter

Brer! It's so cold! Cold and snow and sleet, and winds, and through it all he has to plod day after day, while his thoughts are far away in the sunny Southland! If only he could be there, enjoying the warm ocean and the golden sands! But, no, he has to stay in the cold so that his loved ones may be safely down there in the nice warm sunshine!

What a difference, his Winter and theirs! Theirs say and carolers, days filled with sunshine and happiness, laughter and dancing; his, work and cold and snow and weary evenings alone! But he doesn't mind for he knows that his dear ones are enjoying themselves. That's what Love does! Sacrifices itself that the object of its love may have everything possible. And always where there's Love you find contentment.

FIVE CONVERTED AT REVIVAL

"Wages of Sin" Sermon Theme of Rev. S. E. West.

"The hardest work attendant to being a Christian is far easier than that passed through by those who live in sin," averred the Rev. S. E. West, pastor, at the Free Methodist church revival, Avondale street, last night. He spoke on Paul's words "The wages of sin is death."

Five persons went forward for the altar service at the conclusion of the sermon.

The Rev. Mr. West will speak twice on Sunday, his morning theme being "Christ and the Church," and the evening one, "The Unpardonable Sin."

He spoke of the nature of work, pointing out that pay and reward comes from service and that man, unable to do all, adapts himself to some kind of work.

"The nature of some work is hard. Some hold it is too hard to be a Christian yet is easier than remaining in sin. It is said: 'Take by yoke upon you for my burden is light.' God so created us to realize that sin is wrong. Often we feel only others sin. The consciousness of sin goes everywhere. The Christian knowing how to pray will cause the Holy Spirit to move on the heart of sin. Folks, trusting the Lord, must pray to Him, reminding Him of His promises."

"Some continue to resist God while sick of the sin in which they are involved. God answers prayer though we may not know how He does it."

"The Holy Spirit seems to put forth a special effort during revivals. The church making no special effort has no revivals. The Holy Spirit lends assistance in revealing to conscience the nature of sin. The Christian moves when the Holy Spirit moves in answer to prayer."

Sinners finally come to the place where they see Christ in the way. They then go and accept Him rather than tramp Him under their feet.

No matter how much or what service is rendered the devil he is not satisfied. The more is done to please him the more he is displeased. Thrust out of heaven he is ever dissatisfied for the wages of sin is death. The soul that sinneth shall die."

GRANT TO STUDY WAR MANEUVERS

WASHINGTON.—Lt. Col. U. S. Grant, 34, chairman of the government inaugural committee and grandson of the Civil War general, is going to take a post-graduate course in war maneuvers.

Secretary of War Davis aid Colonel Grant's assignment as a student at the local War College has no special significance. Colonel Grant has almost completed his four-year term as director of public buildings and parks.

The colonel will be a freshman in the class rooms when college starts its fall session. There he will study the science of war, some of which, no doubt, his famous grandfather practiced back in the 60's.

Rheumatism Overcome By Walking

It has been found that an especially constructed and treated pair of heel plates (one zinc and one copper) placed in the shoes of a sufferer, quickly rids the wearer of rheumatic pains, sciatica and stiff joints, as well as tones up the system in general. Thus the sufferer literally "walks" his way to health. Experiments in hundreds of cases prove these heel plates to be a boon to the sufferer in most severe cases of rheumatism. Smith's Eureka Co., 221 Lee St., McKenzle, Tenn., is so anxious to prove their statement that they are willing to send any sufferer their liberal trial offer. Write them today.—Adv.

man on Sunday morning, while at night the evangelistic theme will be "The Neglect of Salvation."

His text last night were the words of the invitation during the wedding feast mentioned by the Christ: "Come, for all things are ready."

He referred to the joy attending the weddings and said that the kingdom of heaven was likened to its feast. "Jesus honored a wedding by his presence and the performance at it of His first miracle," he said.

"Christianity must not be painted as drab. The queen of Sheba came from the uttermost parts of the earth to see the glories of the kingdom of Solomon, yet in the domain of Christianity there are to be found greater things than ever were noted by Solomon. Nothing he had seen transcended the beauty of people animated by the possession of a glad salvation."

"And it is such a feast that will gladden the inner beings of all who accept the invitation given by Christ. He would have us enjoy the gospel feast and all that it conveys. The call is thus one to accept Christ, one for salvation from sin."

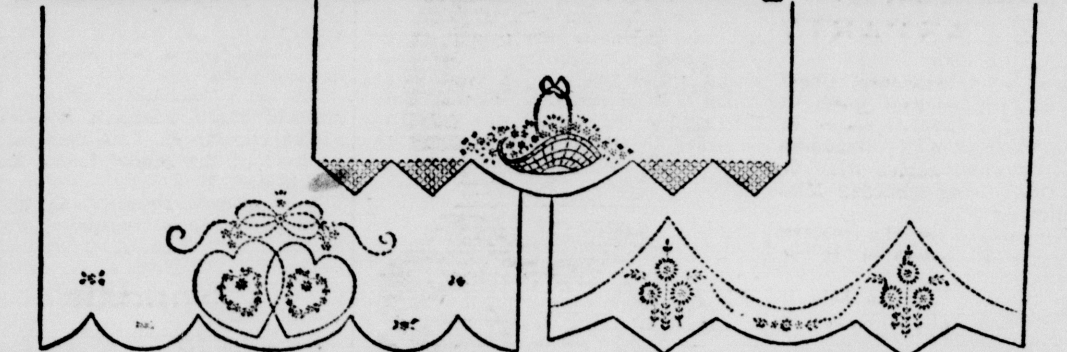

"It is an intelligent call since the Christ avers: 'Come let us reason together.' It is a call for immediate surrender. 'Now is the accepted time' for so doing."

Child, 3, Is Rescued After Fall in Creek

Clarence Burns, Salineville, Recovers From Effects of Icy Plunge; Father in Rescue Role After La's Five-year-old Brother Fails.

SALINEVILLE, Ohio, March 9.—Clarence, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Blase Burns of Salineville, rescued from swollen Yellow creek yesterday by his father after five-year-old brother, Paul, had bravely plunged into the water to try to carry him ashore, today was feeling none the worse for his experience.

Clarence, Paul and a third brother were playing along the creek bank when Clarence slipped and tumbled into the swiftly running water.

Paul leaped into the creek in an attempt to save his brother and the third youth, John, 4 ran home to tell his parents.

The current carried the child down stream so rapidly that Paul was unable to get to him but the children's father reached the scene quickly and and raced almost 300 yards down the creek before he was able to pull the child from the muddy water.

The lad was unconscious when taken from the water but was revived after treatment had been given by Dr. C. A. McCullough.

DIANAS OF FAIRWAYS HIT PAR

Gone are the days when a woman golfer could turn in a card of 100, or even 90, and receive a glance of approval from the gallery. Today, thanks to the pace set by the youngsters, she probably won't even qualify for a tournament. For club-wielders like Miss Helen Hicks, center, Miss Glenna Collett, left, and Miss Van Wie, right, are satisfied with nothing outside the 70's. Miss Collett shot a 73, two strokes over men's par, at the Pine Needles course, while Miss Hicks turned in a 75 at Ormond Beach. The effect of these records is to raise the standard for veterans as well, and Mrs. Dorothy Hurd, "dowager of the links," is battling gamely to hold her laurels.

church held its regular meeting Thursday night in the K. of C. hall. Regular business was transacted. Standing like this tires you quickly...

yet thousands sleep this same unnatural way!

(Drawn from actual photograph)

You will immediately notice the nervous and unsteady position of the spine when you are standing upright. Sleeping the same way prevents complete relaxation.

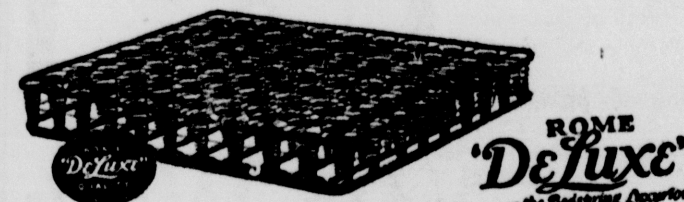

When you sleep on a Rome De Luxe bedspring the spine is straight and natural; the body is fully relaxed

MOST people sleep with the spine curved, never realizing the harmful results of the unnatural position they have become accustomed to.

This strained position is impossible when you sleep on a Rome De Luxe spring. Every coil in a De Luxe moves independently of all other coils, yielding to the pressure of hips and shoulders yet rising to relieve all strain on the vital organs between. The spine lies naturally, straight and free from strain. Nerves and muscles are fully relaxed... refreshing sleep comes quickly.

Enjoy this new deep sleep right now. We will gladly bring a Rome De Luxe bedspring to your home for a trial. Phone us today for details, and let us give you a copy of Dr. Royal S. Copeland's interesting booklet, "How Better Sleep Builds Better Health."

Rome De Luxe Springs can be found only at this store.

Caps And Gowns

Whether caps and gowns, suggested as an inexpensive attire for graduates on commencement night, will be adopted for the 1929 class of the East Liverpool high school is problematical. The action of other cities on the question probably will be a factor in determining the decision here.

The board of education, which has discussed the suggestion for several weeks, has sent a questionnaire to school authorities in Steubenville, Bellaire, Martins Ferry, Cambridge, Canton and other Ohio communities. Answers are expected before the next March session.

Irrespective of the decision, inexpensive clothes will be worn by the 135 girls and boys when they receive their diplomas on Wednesday night, May 29, for they have gone on record to this effect. The girls have voted to wear white at the baccalaureate services, which will be held on Sunday, May 26, and pastel shades on graduation night. And simplicity is to be thought of the dressmakers.

The boys, of course, have few, if any, worries regarding their attire.

The school board is acting wisely in ascertaining the opinions of other communities on the question. However, during recent years it has been recognized that the caps and gowns failed to solve the commencement graduation expense problems, for the girls buy dresses for other activities during commencement week. There is no embarrassment for less fortunate members, for graduating classes have ways and means of coping with any deserving case. And this is true here.

Irrespective of the decision of the board of education, it is certain there will be no heartache for any member of the East Liverpool high school class on commencement night.

Mr. Coolidge, The Author

Calvin Coolidge has returned to his Northampton, Mass., home—to the modest duplex where he and Mrs. Coolidge lived until the public called her husband, first to the governor's mansion at Boston, thence to the office of vice-president, and later to the White House. And he is probably grateful he is freed of the onerous duties of the president's office.

From the quiet precincts of the modest Northampton home of the Coolidges there will come soon the first of a series of articles which are to appear in national magazines under the name of Calvin Coolidge. It is unnecessary here to say that these articles will be interesting. In fact, they ought to provide some mighty intriguing reading, being the viewpoint of a New Englander on the life he has led for seven years in the White House.

Mr. Coolidge should prove to be outstanding in the field of contemporary writing. He has a broad point of view, a manner of speaking and writing that is capable of holding attention because of his quaintness of expression, and they will be fresh and vivid because of the intimate and so recent contact of the writer with the things about which he will write.

And beyond all that, Mr. Coolidge should find in this new life, a complete relaxation from the exacting career he has been leading. He will enjoy himself, one feels, in writing, and in being with the home folks again, and in going to his law office each morning and browsing about as was his wont before he was elected governor of Massachusetts.

The public will not forget Mr. Coolidge. He has been entirely too great a president for that to happen. And his writing and his activity at home will serve to keep him in the limelight, albeit not under its brightest rays, as has been the case in recent years.

Lindy In New Role

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has attracted attention in a brand new role. The hero of aeronautics has accomplished a feat at which thousands have tested their skill and daring and, as usual, has been successful where others have failed. He has not made a non-stop flight around the world; he has not landed a plane in a one-way street; he has not flown backwards. He has done something really unique. He has proven that a one-armed driver can operate an airplane with a pretty girl at his side.

His recent crash, not because he wasn't using two arms, but because the plane had lost a landing wheel, cost him the use of the right arm for a few days. But it didn't cramp his courting technique.

The very next day he and his fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow, took ship and sailed again and the colonel proved that one-armed driving isn't so hazardous after all—in an airplane.

Having advanced the cause of aviation in this manner is something to write home about. If it will serve to take some of the one-armed drivers off the highways and into the sky it will at least lessen a portion of the world's worry, regardless of the consequences to those less skilled than the colonel either in aviation or courtship.

Mussolini On Job

Before summer the waters of Lake Nemo, which nestles in the Alban hills, near Rome, will have given up the two great pleasure barges of the Roman emperor, Caligula, which they have guarded for almost 1,900 years. Four times over a period covering the last 500 years, effort has been made to no avail to raise them, hence the present plan of recovery to draw off the water of the lake to give access to them.

Since last October, great electric pumps have been fitting the water at the rate of about 500 gallons a day into an old Roman tunnel, through which it passes to fall in a cascade into the Aricia valley and then on into the Mediterranean. The result is that the lake level has been reduced about fifteen feet and already the uppermost tip of the barge nearest the shore is only three feet under the water and the outline of the entire vessel may be discerned. Such is the slant of the lake bottom, that the result of each day's pumping is now plainly indicated by a fall in the lake level.

In six months under the spur of Mussolini's great interest in archaeology, more has been accomplished than during the preceding 500 years, and in three months more the two vessels will be subject to the inspection of tourists. It is hard to think of a better illustration of the difference between Mussolini and those who have preceded him in power in Italy in recent years.

HASKIN DAILY LETTER

By Frederick J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—To Barcelona capital of the kings of Arragon, may fairly be attributed a large part of the rise of modern industry in Spain. Spain had, for the most part, been chiefly a pastoral and agricultural nation. Its wines have been famed throughout the world, its olives and oranges are known wherever those products are used and vast herds of cattle and other stock roam its pampas. Industries had flourished from early times at certain places but not until fairly recently have they been modernized. Spain had been considered a country with all its glories behind it for a long time.

Then arose the modern industries of Barcelona. The city is a Mediterranean seaport which long before the days of Columbus sent out ships to vie in trade with those of Genoa and Venice. Discovery of America caused the palm to pass to more westerly ports and, for a time, the city lost prestige. Yet it was the first to grasp on an extensive scale the modern idea of industry.

When the Seville exposition was projected as a gesture to reveal to the world the achievement in art and culture and the background of tradition and historical association of Spain, Barcelona was rather left out of the picture. But then was conceived the idea by the new industrial masters of the city to make an exposition for themselves for the purpose of showing that Spain also had a present as well as a past and had modernities to display which might well rival those of any other industrial city in the world.

So, then, this year sees Spain holding two great world expositions, the one at Seville especially revelatory of ancient Spain and the one at Barcelona of the new era, the machine age. Both are under the royal patronage of the King of Spain and to both have been invited nations and organizations as well as individual manufacturers desiring to display wares along with those of Spain.

Unlike the Seville exposition which has erected splendid permanent buildings, Barcelona has only four such structures. There are eleven additional temporary structures for the housing of the exhibits. Of the permanent buildings, perhaps the one which will prove most spectacular to visitors is the enormous stadium with a seating capacity of 60,000 persons. Sport will be emphasized at Barcelona as well as industry and during the year there will be international events in which athletes from many countries will compete.

American industries are concentrating their efforts on placing at Barcelona exhibits of United States goods especially adapted to the Spanish and Spanish-American market for the whole purpose of the enterprise is the obtaining of mutual trade advantages by Spain, her former colonies, which now are the independent Spanish-speaking countries of South and Central America, and the United States. The last recorded year show that we sold Spain $700,000 worth of goods and bought $35,000,000 from her. One-third of all Spanish imports come through the port of Barcelona. It is the New York of Spain. It is the hope of all three factors in the situation that these figures will be materially increased as well as the trade figures as between Spain and the Spanish-speaking republics on this continent.

Architecturally, Barcelona has a peculiar fascination. There are an ancient and a modern city side by side. The old city still has narrow, winding streets with many houses of original Moorish construction. The new city is quite modern.

The city formerly was defended by a vast wall of ramparts but as late as 1845 these were thrown down. The moat was drained and used to form the cellars of new houses. The space occupied by the ancient citadel was made into a garden.

Like all other Spanish cities, Barcelona is famous for its architectural wonders. The cathedral is regarded as one of the finest examples of the Spanish Gothic extant. There are other notable ecclesiastical structures and also wonderful Roman remains.

Q. What is Farina's real name? E. G. G.

A. Farina of Our Gang is a little boy named Henry Clay Hoskins.

Q. Who brought the Wagstaff clocks to this country? W. H. M.

A. Thomas Wagstaff was in business in London, 1766-1794. A number of long case clocks by him have appeared in America, generally in the possession of Quakers and their descendants. Wagstaff was a Quaker and members of the Society of Friends when visiting London were accustomed to lodge at his house.

Q. If Burns did not write Auld Lang Syne, why does it appear in his works? I. W.

A. Although the words of the song Auld Lang Syne appear in Burns' works, he himself admits that he wrote only the second and third stanzas. A song of the same title can be traced to the latter part of 1600. In a letter to George Thomson, September, 1793, Burns says "One song more I have done, Auld Lang Syne. The air is but mediocre but the following song, the old song of the olden times, and which has never been in print nor even in manuscript until I took it down from an old man's singing, is enough to recommend any air."

Q. What country first used the diamond as a jewel? What are the diamonds of the world worth today? J. S.

A. India was the original home of the diamond as a jewel. For centuries India remained the sole source of Europe's diamond supply. About 1730 diamonds were discovered in Brazil. In 1867 diamonds were discovered in South Africa. South Africa diamonds constitute more than 90 per cent of the world's supply. From their discovery to the present time they have yielded 90,000,000 carats. The diamonds of the world probably represent a value of $5,000,000,000.

Q. What solution will make cloth fireproof? M. S. A.

A. The Bureau of Standards says that it does not know of any preparation that will fireproof organic fabrics so that they will not burn. A good flame proofing preparation for theatrical scenery and hangings is a solution of borax and boric acid in water in the proportion of 6 parts borax, 5 parts boric acid, and 100 parts of water by weight. This solution may be applied by brushing, or better, by dipping the fabrics and allowing them to dry. This will prevent spread of fire from such sources as small flames or sparks.

Q. How many members of the constitutional convention had been in congress? T. B.

A. Forty of the fifty-five.

NEW YORK Day By Day

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, March 9.—New York had a visiting novelist this winter who made no effort to be a bright boy at the tea table, sport epigrams or comment on crude American manners. He was Ernest Hemingway, who has a cherubic moon of a face and a coconish mustache and although a product of Chicago, lives in Paris and made his reputation there.

Accompanying him to America was George Slocum, a poet, who was a thinly disguised character in Hemingway's "The Sun Also Rises." Slocum wears a heavy black beard and while his odd manner of dress would not turn a head on Montparnasse it caused much craning of necks on New York streets.

Hemingway is one of the famed writing geniuses in real life who cares nothing for financial rewards of his trade. Since his sudden success he has been besieged with offers from magazines and book publishers, but dodges them to slip off to Florida or fishing expeditions.

Fishing in Florida and bull fights in Spain take up much of his time, and he writes only under pressure of necessity and then feverishly. It should be encouraging to struggling unknowns that his famous prize fight story, "Fifty Grand," was turned down by three leading American editors.

All agreed it was one of those stories with little appeal in manuscript form, but in type set pulses flutter. Hemingway has just finished a novel promised to a popular magazine at a big price, but at the last moment was touched by a sentimentality and begged off. He gave it for a very small price to a magazine that bought his first story.

Those who know say if he would strike while the iron is hot as Michael Arlen did—he could retire with plenty in a few years. He meets the editors agreeably, but promises nothing. Not so long ago an editor dispatched an emissary to Key West where Hemingway was testing the tarpon.

The emissary carried a sizable check for option on a short story idea the magazine desired. Hemingway refused the check, explaining he thought well of the idea and would like to write the story, but did not want to be bound. All of which is a trifle beside in the world of letters.

Incidentally, the sickening sea tragedy of a few months ago caused a curious reaction in a New York magazine office. The editor, after reading the details on his suburban train, reached his office in a righteous boil. He called up the advertising manager of a steamship line which had just placed a large display order.

"I have cancelled your order," he said. "We do not want to encourage murder in our columns. If travel advertising leads people up gangplanks of rotten ships we are going to discontinue it immediately." This spirit has become so pronounced several advertising mediums are insisting upon clean bills of health from steamship lines.

There are at least 20 restaurants in town that refuse to let ushers open up eating places next door to trade on their popularity. To circumvent this, the popular places open the adjoining places themselves. These are given different names, furnished differently, but food is often served from the same kitchen. One cafe on upper Broadway, owns and manages the restaurants on either side of it.

Before departing for Hollywood for her try at the films, Dorothy Parker met a young poet of her acquaintance and learned he was to be in Hollywood a week or so later. "Please drop around. I'll be mighty glad to see you," she told him. But as he departed she said to a friend: "What a dull place Hollywood is going to be if I will be glad to see him."

There is no place where the backspinning snail receives such a buzzab as in the metropolis. It is looked upon as sophisticated humor. Sarcasm is not always a symbol of mental brilliance. The greatest half-wit in the world can be sarcastic—just like this.

Speaking of sarcasm, one of those butterfly drunks who flits from table to table in night clubs lunched up to one occupied by an austere gentleman, with a crisp white mustache, and his party.

"Is everybody happy?" beamed the jaz.

"Everybody was," was the fligid reply.

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth A Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland.

It is a long time since I have spoken about the eyes. How miserable one can be if the eyes get sore or the sight is impaired from any cause. Today I shall say something about these precious organs. One of my colleagues in the senate is blind. I often look upon him with admiration. He seems so cheerful and is so devoted to his work that it is difficult to believe he is absolutely without sight. But he follows the debates and takes part in them just as if he could see. With it all he is happy.

Sometimes I close my eyes to find how it would seem not to see. I am thankful I am not blind and I know you are, too.

Fortunately, blindness is an uncommon ailment. Very few members of society are thus afflicted.

But neglect and abuse of the eyes are just about as common as any of the human faults. It is surprising how prone we are to forget things which are really important. When you consider how necessary eyesight is and how dependent we are on it, it would seem to be a natural thing to look after the eyes. But we don't.

Eyes are subject to two chief disturbances. In the first place, these organs are exposed to wind and weather, to dust and dirt, to infections conveyed by unclean hands. In consequence, it is not uncommon to suffer the pain of a foreign body in the eye or an inflammation of some sort.

LET'S PLAY FAIR!

Due to pressure brought to bear by another Pittsburgh evening newspaper upon the news dealers in East Liverpool, End End, Wellsville, Ohio, and Chester, W. Va., these dealers have discontinued handling the Pittsburgh Press. This sudden and unexpected action taken by these news dealers created an emergency and in order to assure its readers of prompt and regular service, the Pittsburgh Press established a branch office in East Liverpool and selected local business men to handle distribution of Pittsburgh Press in the other towns.

Many local boys are now engaged in delivering the Daily and Sunday PITTSBURGH PRESS to their customers. The training received by serving Newspapers is an asset to any youngster and looked upon as one of the first stepping stones in a boy's life; for after all your little News Boy is the Business man of the future.

The News Boy does all the work; therefore he should receive all the profit.

He is the one who should be supported both morally and financially.

The PITTSBURGH PRESS A UNION PAPER throughout is a desciple of FAIR PLAY and each year spends thousands of dollars toward the advancement of the News Boy.

Support and encourage this little business fellow by buying and reading the Daily and SUNDAY PITTSBURGH PRESS.

JUST TRY TO MATCH THIS VALUE

It is easy to prove Oldsmobile's outstanding value to your own complete satisfaction, if you will examine it, drive it, and match it point for point with other cars in its field.

Just look at the 1929 Oldsmobile. Its perfection of line—its individuality—its smart new style—all form a magnificent tribute to Fisher designing genius. And you know that Body by Fisher stands for sturdy construction and painstaking craftsmanship as well as beauty.

Oldsmobile's interiors are expressive of fine car quality in their richness, restfulness, and luxury of appointment. What is more, you will find many comforts and conveniences unusual in a car of Oldsmobile's class... such as four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers—gasoline gauge and temperature gauge on the dash—adjustable steering wheel—and the new adjustable driver's seat, introduced by Fisher.

When you drive the car you will discover exceptional performance... swift getaway, brilliant speed, and ample power for any task. You will marvel at its easy steering, easy parking and matchless roadability.

And typical of its quality, Oldsmobile's big 62 horsepower high-compression engine incorporates progressive engineering features rarely found in any but high-priced cars—such as pressure-lubricated piston pins.

The way to know automobile values is to make comparisons. Come and see this finer Oldsmobile. Take a drive. Check it feature for feature with any other car. Just try to match its value!

SAFE IN COUNTRY WHERE REVOLUTION RAGES

An important reason why the eyes of America are turned toward Mexico these days is the presence there of Ambassador Morrow (inset, left), his daughter Anne; Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, engaged to marry Anne; and Mrs. Morrow, wife of the ambassador. Although the family is reported safe in every respect, the stories of the spreading revolution give rise to some anxiety. At left is a view of the Morrow estate at Cuernavaca, about forty miles from Mexico City, where the flier and the ambassador's daughter are expected to be married. At right is a view of the gardens, where the couple met and carried on their courtship.

ANNIE LAURIE'S
TIMELY ADVICE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl in my teens and like a fellow, four years my senior, very much and am sure he likes me as well as I do him.

He is in the hospital now and writes to me about once a week. He has asked me to write to him whenever I can. Is it proper for me to write to him every day or so if I have time when I don't receive a letter from him any more often? So far I have only answered his letters.

He says he enjoys my letters very much and that they give him new hopes.

BROWN EYES.

BROWN EYES: My dear child, you should certainly write to your friend as frequently as you can. For when one is ill and in a hospital surrounded by strangers, a letter means so much. By all means write to him, whether he answers it or not, for you may be the means of aiding in his speedy recovery. I hope so.

DER ANNIE LAURIE:

I have been going with a fellow eight years my senior for some time. Now my problem is: He will soon have a birthday and I would like to give him a present. What would you suggest?

TIGER.

TIGER: If you are engaged, then you have a wide selection of gifts, for jewelry and expensive gifts are proper. However, if no engagement exists, then something impersonal—a book, or some trifle that would please him.

IT is easy to understand the sweeping popularity and record sales of the new Superior Whippet Fours and Sixes. See and drive either car, and you will know why January and February of this year showed more than 100% sales gain over the corresponding months of 1928.

The style creation of master designers, the new Superior Whippet sets an ultra-modern trend for Fours and light Sixes—with longer bodies, trim lines, higher radiator and hood, chromium plate, and one-piece full crown fenders.

The mechanical triumph of leading engineers, the new Superior Whippet is faster, livelier and more powerful—and especially notable for operating economy and minimum service costs.

WARDEN HINTS PLOT TO BLAST STATE PRISON

Thomas Asks Ban on Auto Parking Along
Walls.

EXPLAINS REASON

Cars Provide Shelter,
For Fleeing Convicts,
He Says.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—That there has been several plots to blow up the walls of the Ohio state penitentiary in recent months, was the information gleaned today when Warden P. E. Thomas asked the Columbus city council to prohibit parking of automobiles along the huge stone barriers.

Explaining the reason for the request, Warden Thomas said that he had received reports several times recently that an automobile loaded with high-powered time explosives would be driven against the wall. The force of the blast, it was said, would have been great enough to dynamite a section of the wall and permit a whole-sale jail delivery.

Other reasons given by the warden were that parked autos provide shelter for fleeing convicts and that they obscure the vision of tower guards. Parking is now prohibited along the wall on the east side, and the warden asked that an ordinance also be put into effect along the west and north walls.

WINTER WINS LEASE ON LIFE

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—A dying winter, fanned by querulous seasonal winds, will continue its lease on life in the Buckeye state tonight.

Forecasters of the lease, is expected tomorrow, however, when the mercury is scheduled to begin a climb.

Temperatures in Ohio, according to U. S. weather bureau officials here, will range for 16 to 20 degrees above tonight.

Sunday will be fair, they declared, with the thermometer standing above the freezing mark. No rain or snow was included in the forecast for the weekend.

NO MANUFACTURER could make his plant pay, if he had to close down all winter. The farmer must do that, and that it is part of the problem.

Henry Ford's plan to expedite farming operations with more farm machinery and build factories in which the farmer can work in winter time might help.

LEAVING his house for his old law office, where he worked for several hours, Mr. Coolidge may have said, like the bride and groom, "Alone at last."

At his front door there was not a photographer in sight, not a reporter to ask how he had slept, how he planned to earn a living. That has not happened in a long time.

MR. COOLIDGE will be pleased to hear of the intense public interest in his magazine writings. His first installment for the April Cosmopolitan Magazine has gone on sale, and Ray Long, editor of Cosmopolitan, sends word that sales and public interest are extraordinary.

CANADIAN Indians returning from the headwaters of the Attawapiskia river in northern Ontario, left behind the frozen body of a white man, "standing bolt upright on snowshoes."

His body will be brought in next spring.

THAT a man should be frozen still in his tracks is startling. But such "extreme cold" is comparatively not cold at all.

If sudden calamity swept our protecting atmosphere from the earth's surface, bringing the earth in contact with outer space at absolute zero, oceans, lakes and rivers would be frozen solid, and all the 1,600,000,000 human beings on earth would instantly become so many frozen statues.

WE SHOULD be grateful for the air, protecting us from outer cold, from meteors, and grateful for all the other marvelous arrangements for our comfort that we owe to a kind providence, especially for our marvelous vaso-motor, heat regulating system.

THE French government will not permit Trotsky to enter France. But Trotsky should not complain. "Turn about is fair play."

When he was in command of the Russian army, Trotsky kept the French, British and others from entering Russia.

Perhaps he wonders now why he took the trouble to do it.

REVOLUTIONISTS in Mexico discovered that to make a revolution successful against living machines is difficult. To strike your deadly blow and retire to the mountains is not convenient, when flying machines overtake you on the way, or get there ahead and wait for you with bombs, machine gunfire and poison gas.

Frank K. Robinson

Frank K. Robinson, city water works clerk, has been on the job for nearly 13 years. He was appointed May 7, 1916, by Mayor W. F. Orr to succeed David Mackintosh.

He was born in East Liverpool, July 28, 1889, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson. After attending the public schools he entered the potteries, working in the warehouse and decorating departments. He was employed at the old Goodwin plant for many years and later was foreman of the decorating shop of the D. E. McNicol pottery. Prior to appointment as water works clerk, he was engaged in the automobile business.

Robinson married Miss Lorena Helen Henneman, Wheeling, W. Va., in 1902. He is a member of the Masons, Knights of the Golden Eagle, Knights of Malta and Moose lodges and the official board of the First Church of Christ. In politics he is a Republican.

He lives at 407 Morton street.

KIDNAPING CASE IS POSTPONED

Judge Absent; Arnold
Trial at Wooster
Delayed.

WOOSTER, O., March 9. (INS)—The trial of Elias Arnold and his son Arthur, who are alleged to have abducted 4-year-old Melvin Horst of Orrville, was today postponed from Monday until Tuesday, next.

This was necessitated by the absence of Judge G. A. Starn, who is presiding in a Cleveland court. He telegraphed that he will be unable to return here Monday, so the trial was postponed a day.

Elias and Arthur, together with three other persons, were indicted by the Wayne county grand jury recently on a child-stealing charge in connection with the disappearance of the little boy. The tot vanished from the streets of Orrville, near here, just at dusk, was settling on the night of Dec. 27. He has not been seen or heard from since and is believed the victim of foul play.

The three others indicted are Bascom McHenry, a son-in-law of Elias Arnold, Bascom's wife, Dorothy, and William Arnold.

Morris Infant

Carl, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, 605 Jackson street, died this morning. Funeral services will be held in the home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. Burial will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

Mexicans Advance

Rebels Claim Half Dozen Cities. Rebel chiefs claim to hold more than half a dozen important cities in northwestern Mexico. These cities are Nogales, Ciudad Juarez, Hermosilla, Guaymas, Mazatlan, Chihuahua and Torreon.

The garrison at Mexicali, lower California, which is supported with bombing planes, is planning to bomb Nogales. Sonora offers a danger to the American city of Nogales, Arizona, which adjoins the Mexican city. There is danger of bombs falling upon United States soil.

There is another threat of fighting upon the United States line at San Luis, which is just over the border from Yuma, Ariz. If fighting breaks out in those places the United States military authorities will take the same precautions they did at El Paso, Tex., during the fighting at Juarez yesterday.

The Mexican government announced that General J. M. Aguirre, the rebel leader who evacuated Vera Cruz, will be executed when captured. Aguirre is in flight towards the Isthmus of Tehuantepec. It is believed he will try to make his way to a port for flight in a ship or to slip over the Guatemalan line.

Calles Masses 20,000 Troops.

MEXICO CITY, March 9.—The federal government today took a philosophical view of the fall of Juarez, declared it without significance and went on with its plans for a sweeping campaign in northwestern Mexico. War Minister Calles plans to rush an army of more than 20,000 federal troops against the rebels there in a supreme effort to crush the insurrection.

Quiet in Juarez.

EL PASO, Texas, March 9.—Quiet reigned in Juarez today with the Mexican revolutionary forces in complete control after driving the federal forces from the city yesterday.

On this side of the Rio Grande, a sorrowful family mourned the death of two-year-old Lidia Rodarte, one of the two innocent American victims of yesterday's battle.

The child was struck by a stray bullet while playing in front of her home four blocks north of the river. The other American fatality occurred in Juarez in the heat of the battle. A bartender, believed to be Teddy Barnes, of Augusta, Ga., was killed by stray bullets while in bed in the St. Louis hotel. A six-year-old boy, Luis Chavez, was also wounded while playing in front of his home in El Paso.

Estimates of the dead were vague because they were removed from the streets immediately. It is believed the rebels lost from five to eight men and the federales between ten and twelve with the wounded on both sides estimated at similar figures.

Religion Brings Peace

guest for several hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Cooper, Springfield street, Northside.

There he confirmed the fact, sometimes denied, that groundhogs whistle and rattlesnakes, particularly the Tennessee variety, are susceptible to music. "We can drive along in automobiles and honk the horn a few times and the groundhogs will rise in fields along the road," he said. "I can sit on my own porch and hear them frequently whistle. Not long ago some folks on a warm evening with the door open as the violins were being played were startled to note two large rattlesnakes had joined the company and were enjoying the melodious strains."

Buddies Present Flowers.

He was pleased at the conclusion of his talk to be presented "by two of his buddies" with a bouquet of crimson and white carnations. He immediately had them sent home to his wife. "She will be mighty glad to get them," he said. The donors were Lester Trainer of the Ambulance Corps of the 328th Infantry and Charles R. Logan, of Company A, of the same regiment.

He was introduced to the audience by the Rev. Dr. Warren O. Hawkins, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The chairman was presented by Arthur Savage, of Chesapeake, Va., president of the Asbury class.

The assembly sang as the curtain rolled up, revealing the stage and its occupants. "My Country 'Tis of Thee," directed by the Rev. C. R. Loney, assistant pastor of the church. The Rev. Mr. Loney then sang "My Own United States," accompanied by Miss Helen Gamble. The invocation was made by the Rev. Dr. Hawkins and the benediction given by the Rev. Mr. Loney. During the interim between the lecture, the high school orchestra, directed by Ralph Johnson, contributed several musical numbers.

Organized originally to study the Bible the Asbury class also qualifies as a service unit," declared the Rev. Dr. Hawkins in his introduction of the speaker. "Its members are glad to present to you a man whose devotion to his country is no greater than his loyalty to his God."

Put Christ Above All, He Urges.

Though discussing war in its harrowing aspects Sergeant York unhesitatingly declared that prayer would prevent future fighting between nations. "We must train our boys and girls to love the flag," he said, "but they must be also taught to put Christ above all else. Religion only will bring about universal peace."

He said that he was a farmer, but that his wife could grow corn and potatoes as well as he can. "So that is why I am able to go about the country speaking for the benefit of better roads and schools in my mountain homeland," he confided, as the audience laughed.

That he does not get any salary for his speaking was also affirmed by him. He spoke of his delight in receiving a message from Mrs. York on Thursday, in which she said that amendment to a bill had been agreed which likely will give his district an appropriation of $25,000 for education. "If that is finally passed then maybe I will not have to go around talking so much," he commented.

Having spoken in every state save California, Washington, Oregon and Nevada, he reported 13 new schools in his territory by now with others remodeled and the installation of a bus system by which boys and girls ride 14 miles to study after walking three or four miles twice a day to the roadways. Old fashioned lanterns are necessary to penetrate the winding trails during late and early dusk, he said.

He gave a vivid picture of the mountaineers who affect homespun clothing and long dresses and who work the looms while singing "Jesus Lover of My Soul." "The women wear sun-bonnets to Sunday school and high topped shoes. An' there is but one book—the Bible—in the home which frequently only children can read. But nightly all gather about the fireplace while the reading is done and then the father or the mother prays. And some of these are the best prayers one ever hears. The mountain people believe in a Higher Power and they do not hesitate to put their trust in Him."

He said that he had quit smoking, swearing and "shuffling the deck" at which he "was right smart" in 1914. Then he became known as "The Singing Elder" while teaching Sunday school classes. He told how he taught these classes in camp and on ship enroute to the fighting fields of France. He said he never tasted honor in France, nor known "one of the thousands of French girls you have read about."

Tells of Capture of Germans

He gave a glowing description of his being detailed with two other corporals and 15 men to capture the machine gun battalion on a ridge which had for days been preventing the rescue of the "Lost Battalion" in the World war. They decided to go into the rear of the enemy. In doing so they jumped two Germans. One got away. They suddenly rushed into a section of the Germans. He singled out the major commanding and the latter surrendered when he threatened his life. Then the machine guns were turned on them and nearly all of his men were victims of the fire. Again he ordered the major to stop the firing or he would shoot. He blew a whistle and 132 men lay down their arms. "The major wanted to lead the way, but I told him to go the way I ordered." Later he said he never saw the major or any of the captured men again.

His colonel, who, he said, was a profane man, took him back to see how the capture had been effected. "How did you manage to do it?" the colonel asked.

"I did it the night before when in a dugout. I prayed all night knowing what we had to do the next day. It was only by Higher Power."

"I guess you are right, retorted the officer.

Visited Six European Countries. After the war York visited six European countries. "And the United States is the best of all. That is it of seven in the world. That is all I have had money to visit so far," he commented.

He told how upon his return he married his boyhood sweetheart, bought a farm, across Wolf river from his mother's place. He is the third child of eight boys and three girls, all living.

He spoke at the end of his lecture of Woodrow Wilson. "He was one of our greatest presidents," he said. "I know Mrs. Wilson also. I met them in France and since. He regards former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker highly. He is well acquainted with both Senators McKellar and Tyson, of Tennessee. The latter was a general in the war. William Jennings Bryan and I often spoke from the same platform," he said. "We were great friends." He said Gen. Pershing was a great disciplinarian. He knows him and Marshal Foch well. "The latter is a small man physically," he said.

Al Smith Sent Him Flowers. "Yes, I know Billy Sunday. Been with him a lot of times," he went on. "I was at Elyria, Ohio, a few weeks ago and visited the tabernacle."

He said that he had never met former President Coolidge or President Harding.

"I received flowers from Al Smith while I lay in a Nashville hospital last fall when he was campaigning in Tennessee," he admitted. He entered the institution in late September and was able to leave in time for his October engagements.

York politically is a Democrat as most of his people are. But he did not mention politics at any length, but smiled a bit as he noted how his state had gone in the last election.

He Leaves for Marion.

He arrived here from Youngstown. He spoke earlier in the week twice in Buffalo, N. Y. He left this morning for Marion, where he will speak under the auspices of the American Legion on Sunday afternoon. He will meet a representative of the bureau under which he is functioning at Marion tonight. He will speak twice in Zanesville on Monday, from where he will go home for a week's rest before starting out on an engagement that will take him into the New England states. He will quit his winter's platform work in April. He will speak some on Chautauqua tours in the summer.

"Nobody anywhere can cook chicken like they do in the mountains," he suggested during his later conversation. "They sure do know how to put hogmeat about chicken that maintains its natural juices."

"Come on down to Tennessee and hear the groundhogs whistle," was his parting goodbye.

Sergeant York wears two buttons, one of the American Legion and one of the Rotary club, he being a member of the latter in Nashville.

His ancestry is English, he confided. His mother was a Brookes. One of his maternal uncles went to Michigan and fought on the Union side during the Civil war.

His grandfather, Captain Uriah York, fought in the Mexican and Civil wars. He, a schoolteacher, was with General Robert E. Lee during all of the struggle.

In the past four months the population of the eight leading cities of Italy has grown at the rate of 1,000,000 a year, 83 per cent of the increase being due to urban influx.

Of the 10 leaders of the present Chinese government, seven are graduates of American universities.

Present government aid to shipbuilding in France is declared to still be inadequate.

MEXICAN HERO

Called to command of a division of loyal Mexican troops, General Andrew Almazan is looked upon as the "Napoleon" of Mexico. His recapture of Monterey, capital of Nuevo Leon, is one of the greatest successes of the Federal troops.

U. S. WILL ASK INDEMNITY FOR BORDER DEATHS

Two Americans Killed
During Battle of Juarez.

FACTS SOUGHT

Stray Bullets Fired
Across Line at El Paso.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The United States will ask indemnity from the Mexican government for the deaths of two Americans at El Paso, Texas, resulting from stray bullets fired across the border during the battle of Juarez yesterday if the facts warrant, Secretary Kellogg announced today.

He said it was too early to discuss just what action would be taken as the state department has not yet received a report of the circumstances surrounding the killings. Proper representations would be made, however, after the facts were known.

Rebels Abandon Saitillo.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Revolutionary forces in Coahuila have abandoned Saitillo and the capital of Coahuila has been removed to Piedras Negras, according to dispatches received at the state department today.

A dispatch from Eagle Pass, Texas, dated 4:00 p. m. yesterday, said government forces had cut the railroad 40 miles north of Piedras Negras. Americans who drove to Eagle Pass from Musquiz reported everything quiet along the line.

The message from El Paso, dated 4:30 p. m. yesterday, said: "It was agreed between commanders of the federals and rebels that federal troops would be moved into the United States and interned." This agreement was the result of the battle yesterday between federals and rebels at Juarez, across the Rio Grande from El Paso.

Advices from Nogales, signed 4:00 p. m. yesterday, stated:

"The first passenger train from southern Sonora arrived at Nogales (Mexico) night of March 7 with 75 Americans on board.

"They reported everything quiet with no molestation of person or property. The same conditions prevail at Nogales. Cananea trains may be operated south to San Blas.

"Governor Topete (rebel leader) is at Nogales and has given another pronouncement to the press.

"Yesterday at noon a Mexican airplane dropped leaflets on citizenship from Governor Rodriguez, of Lower California, addressed by him to soldiers of the army in Sonora, urging them to be loyal to the federal government."

FAIR MONDAY, RAIN TUESDAY

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—Weather outlook for the period March 11 to 16, inclusive:

Ohio valley: Generally fair weather probable at the beginning of the week, rain Tuesday or Wednesday and again about Saturday. Rising temperature Monday and Tuesday, colder Wednesday or Thursday and warmer by Saturday.

WATCHES BORDER

Mexican hostilities at Juarez possibly threaten to involve the action of U. S. troops across the border according to Brig-General Van Horn Moseley, who, accompanied by staff officers, went into Juarez to confer with General Matias Ramos, the new leader of Mexican federal troops.

U. S. SENDS GUNS TO PORTES GIL

WASHINGTON, March 9.—War department officials today were working out the problem of getting surplus army Enfield rifles and ammunition to the Portes Gil government in Mexico.

President Hoover authorized secretary of War Good to sell to the Mexican government any surplus munitions available.

Request for Enfield, an old-type weapon formerly used in the navy, was made by Mexican Ambassador Telles.

The problem now confronting the war department, Secretary Good explained, is one of transportation—whether to send by boat which would take considerable time, or whether the arms would be safely gotten through northern Mexico where the principal rebel strongholds are.

FATHER AND SON ADMIT GRAFTING

CLEVELAND, March 9.—Former City Councilman Liston G. Schooley and his son, L. G. Schooley, jr., today awaited sentence after pleading guilty late yesterday to an indictment charging them with grafting on the purchase of two pieces of real estate by the city.

The elder Schooley was charged, specifically, with violating a law which forbids an officeholder from profiting on a public purchase, while his son was indicted for aiding and abetting him. The deal was the purchase of two sites for playground purposes at a price of $37,250, said to have been almost double the property's real value.

Former Councilman Schooley declared today he would give no information to the grand jury as to who else shared in the profits on the transaction, believed to have amounted to about $30,000. Prosecutor Ray T. Miller said he would ask that the Schooleys be given severe sentences.

SUICIDE UPSETS MINERAL RIDGE

NILES, O., March 9.—The village of Mineral Ridge, near here, today was stirred by its first suicide in 20 years. Mrs. Maria Elias, 47, took her life by hanging late yesterday. She was the wife of Albert Elias, a steel worker. Her only child, Lillian, 15, spread an alarm when she failed to find her mother on returning from school. A two-hour search resulted in the body being found in the attic. Ill health is believed to have been the motive.

BOY DIES, SEEK DOG-POISONER

PORTSMOUTH, O., March 9.—Investigation of the death of 3-year-old Junior Bloomfield, today led police to search for a dog-poisoner, after it was ascertained that the child died from poison which a pet dog is thought to have brought into the Bloomfield home.

A post-mortem examination revealed poison in the child's stomach. This, coupled with the fact the tot's dog died a half hour before, supplied the hypothesis that the baby ate part of some poisoned food that the dog carried into the house.

GIRL KIDNAPED AT MANSFIELD BY MOTORIST

Leota Jones, 18, Thrown Into Car, Police
Told.

NO TRACE FOUND

Roads Throughout
Northern Ohio are Guarded.

MANSFIELD, O., March 9.—Roads throughout northern Ohio were being closely guarded by police today for a trace of Leota Jones, 18-year-old Mansfield girl, who was reported to have been abducted from the streets here last night.

J. M. Jones, the brother, told police that he saw a young man stop an automobile, leap out and quickly pick up the girl, throw her into the automobile and then speed away.

Jones gave police a description of the youth and furnished the license number of the car.

The alleged kidnaper, according to Chief of Police McClure, has molested the girl before and was also being sought in Chicago for questioning in connection with a kidnapping there.

McClure notified all northern Ohio and western Pennsylvania police, and the dragnet has been spread.

"BED-CLOTHING" FIRE KILLS TOT

CINCINNATI, O., March 9.—Three-year-old Lawrence Setters is dead here today and his mother and a younger brother are in a hospital as the result of a "bed-clothing" fire at their home yesterday. The mother had gone to the house of a neighbor on an errand and it was believed that one of the boys pulled a piece of wood from a coal stove, setting the bed-clothing afire. Mrs. Setters was burned when she tried to rescue the children, and Edward, five-months, also suffered hurts.

Rebel activities did not enter into his calculations at all.

Col. Lindbergh's right arm, which was recently injured in an accident while flying with his intended bride, Miss Morrow, had completely healed and showed no stiffness.

It was understood that a stop might be made at Tampico to refuel. Tampico is in federal hands and there has been no fighting in that region.

Col. Lindbergh intends to fly back to Mexico City in order to "blaze the trail both ways."

Col. Lindbergh came here about a fortnight ago, ostensibly to visit his fiancée, Miss Morrow, whom he had not seen since her father, the ambassador, announced the nuptial engagement earlier in the year.

Surviving the child are its parents and six bothers and sisters.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR ST. CLAIR TOWNSHIP LINK OF NEW ROAD

Hearing on East Liverpool-East Palestine Highway Improvement Set for March 25.

LISBON, O., March 9.—Plans were completed today for the improvement of the East Liverpool-East Palestine road in St. Clair township. Notices have been sent to persons from whom property will be required and a hearing has been set by the county commissioners for 1 p. m. Monday, March 25.

Under the plan to eliminate a number of right and left angle curves, property will be required from the St. Clair township board of education, George P. Foulks, Jennie L. Reed, Blanche P. Elough, Mrs. Sheridan J. Calvin, Sheridan J. Calvin, J. H. Calvin and Joshua R. Calvin.

The new road will be practically a straight line from the present highway at the Hickman farm through sections 15 and 22 in St. Clair township for a distance of 3,900 feet. It will connect with the East Liverpool-Calcuta road.

All claims for damages must be filed in writing before the hearing.

Contracts have been awarded to George B. Patterson of Wellsville for the improvement of the East Liverpool-East Palestine road from its intersection opposite the Hickman farm northward to the St. Clair-Middleton township line, to which point the highway was surfaced last year. Patterson will begin the pouring of concrete as soon as weather conditions permit.

Permission to Sell Real Estate Asked.
A petition to sell real estate has been filed in probate court by Clement E. Beard, guardian of Ruth G. Beard and others, against Hubert Garrett, a minor, and others.

Call Claims Against Estate.
In a petition filed in common pleas court by Albert Hays, administrator of the estate of Mary B. Fisher, against John E. Moore, trustee under the will of the late Anthony M. Fisher and others, claims against the estate are asked to be set up. The petition for the plaintiff was filed by Metzgar, McCarthy & McCorkhill of Salem.

RULINGS MADE IN FOUR CASES

A motion to strike out an amended petition has been overruled by Judge W. F. Lones in the $5,000 damage case filed by Eugene D. Leipper against Louis Shilling.

The divorce action filed in July, 1925, by Mrs. Clara M. Cracraft against Frank Cracraft has been dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff for failure to prosecute the suit.

Report of the commissioners has been confirmed and a sale has been ordered in the partition action filed by Wilbur Yeagley against Zella M. Myers.

Leave to the defendant to answer on or before March 23 has been granted in the case of David B. Mackintosh against the North American Union.

The suit is for the purpose of recovering $1,500 under an insurance policy.

Civil Suit Based on Note.

Wendell Phillips and Charles S. Ling have been ordered to appear in common pleas court March 18 to testify as to the property they have in their possession owned by Gibbs & Brown, formerly in business at Columbiana. This order has been entered in the suit of The Palmolive Peet Company. The original suit was filed in Oct. 1927 for the purpose of recovering on a note for $728.12.

Injunction Against Village Sought.

An injunction to prevent the collection of a special street improvement assessment has been sought in a petition filed in common pleas court by William Rowan and others against the village of New Waterford and the county treasurer. Rowan says that his property has been assessed $555, which is a greater value than that of his land, and in excess of the amount allowed to be collected by law.

Two New Cumberland Marriages Reach Divorce Court.

Edward G. Lamp, married at New Cumberland, W. Va., last Aug. 18, today filed a petition for divorce in common pleas court against Mrs. Margaret N. Lamp, 1236 South Morgan avenue, Alliance, a minor, who lives with her mother.

In addition to charging his wife with gross neglect of duty, Lamp's petition says the defendant went automobile riding with another man, who attacked the plaintiff and knocked out one of his teeth. The defendant is also alleged to have visited places where liquor was sold in the vicinity of Sebring and Alliance, to have attended dances with other men and failed to do any cooking or washing since her marriage.

Another New Cumberland marriage reached the divorce court when a petition was filed by Elinore C. Bixby against her husband, James Bixby, R. F. D. No. 2, East Palestine. This petition was filed by Metzgar, McCarthy & McCorkhill of Salem. This couple was married on June 14, 1927. Extreme cruelty is set up as a cause of the action.

Mrs. Emma F. Welsh, through her counsel, Cochran & Crawford of East Liverpool, asks a divorce against her husband, George E. Welch, 801 Lisbon street. They were married at Washington, Pa., Sept. 4, 1925. Gross neglect of duty is charged.

March 9, 1929.

To the Women of East Liverpool:
We all know the absolute necessity of having pure wholesome milk and cream from tuberculin tested cows not only for drinking but for cooking purposes.
I consider that this community is particularly fortunate in having such a public spirited man at the head of the Golden Star Dairy as Mr. John Eiferd. I learned while there that Ma. Eiferd insisted on having milk from tuberculin tested cows long before the County demanded this of milk dealers. And this he had done at his own expense. This production is still being maintained.
My visit to the Golden Star Dairy revealed a dairy equipped with every modern convenience to make the pasteurizing and handling of milk products absolutely clean and wholesome.
When you buy milk, cream and butter insist that it carries the Golden Star label. It is your guarantee of Purity.

Sincerely,
MRS. BERTHA M. HARRIS

THE STYLE presented with straight shorts and English sack suit is unusually mannish and yet so practical. An extended band at front of jacket forms a vestee and provides smart color scheme. Any little boy would feel important in this jacket suit that buttons down the front, making it possible for the youngster to dress himself. Linen, cotton broadcloth, repp, chambray, jersey and velvet appropriate.

THE PATTERN of Style No. 2622 with picture chart, a real help in saving time, illustrates each and every part, how it is put together without involving difficult workmanship. You'll be surprised how entirely simple it is. Cuts in sizes 2, 4 and 6 years.

In ordering pattern clip the design shown or order by number and be sure to specify the size you want. Write your name and address plainly, enclosing 15 cents and mail to Fashion Department, East Liverpool Review. From 7 to 10 days are required for delivery of patterns.

TAXI DRIVERS PIN FAITH ON SAINTS

HAVANA.—Omnibus drivers who operate between Havana and outlying towns are notorious for their disregard of all rules of safety and caution. At the same time there are remarkably few accidents. Many of the drivers carry a picture of their favorite saint and a printed sign hanging above the steering wheel which reads: "Dios benidige est carro," which translated means "God bless this automobile."

On the saint and the quotation the driver pins his luck and bears down on the throttle for all the motor will stand.

Highs Conquer Bellaire, 34-25; Meet Zanesville Quint Today

Potters Trim Belmont Five In Flashy Battle; Ready For Crucial Test

Red and Black Passers Crumple in Last Half Under Unrelenting Offense of Hurstmen; Dover Smears Shadyside.

DENNISON, O., Mar. 9.—Led by the flashy Bobby Witherow, their clever leader, East Liverpool high school passers moved on a notch in their fight for the state basketball championship when they conquered Bellaire high here, 34-25, yesterday afternoon in the final eliminations of the eastern division.

At the same time two other favorites, Dover and Zanesville, both ranked along with the Potters as heavy tournament favorites, were also climbing another rung in the title competitions, Zanesville doubling the score on Uhrichville, 33 to 16, and Dover smearing Shadyside, 55 to 17.

The wearers of the Blue and White from East Liverpool who have come to be depended upon as producers of flashy basketball, again gave tournament fans a thrill as they conquered Bellaire.

The scrapping was close for the first half with the Red and Black quint from Belmont county having a good chance at this stage of the proceedings.

The Potters rang up seven points to Bellaire's five in the opening period and the scoring remained close until the last minute of the second period when Captain Bob Witherow pulled a four-point coupe that gave the East Liverpool five a commanding lead as they went into the concluding sections of play.

Witherow dribbled down the side of the floor for one of his corner shots. He tossed the sphere and was fouled as he threw. Referee Welch called it. But the ball went slithering through the meshes, registering two points and Witherow stepped to the foul line, dropping in two more for a total of four points on the one toss.

The Bellaire lads rallied desperately in the third quarter and outscored East Liverpool, 11 to 10, but their attack was short lived. They collapsed in the final period, scoring but a single foul point as Witherow and his mates galloped on to add four and definitely clinch the victory.

Zanesville and East Liverpool go in to action this afternoon at 2 o'clock and Dover and Coshocton meet at 3 in the Class A semi-finals.

In the other Class A game yesterday, Coshocton won from Bridgeport, 39 to 8.

In Division, Bella Valley defeated Adena, 36 to 27; Midvale lost to Millersburg, 33 to 24; New Concord won from Coshocton Sacred Heart, 21-20, and Macksburg downed Pleasant City, 23 to 22.

Winners Battle for Finals Place in East Liverpool.

Every boxing bout contested at the Western Pennsylvania division championships in the Wilmerding (Pa.) Y. M. C. A., recently, ended in a knock-out. Never before in the history of Pennsylvania Railroad competition has every bout been won so decisively.

The winners fight in the Central region championship at Olean, N. Y., March 15 and 16. Victory there means the right to enter The Pennsylvania Railroad championships in the Public auditorium, East Liverpool, O., March 23.

In the bantam weight setto, "Johnny" Haggerty, of the Pittsburgh division, scored a technical K. O. over Tony Pastori of the Conemaugh division, two minutes and 25 seconds after the gong opened the first round.

Louis Santucci, of the Pittsburgh division, finished R. C. Weimer, of the Monongahela division, in the opening stanza of the featherweight bout.

Frankie Moran, of the Pittsburgh division, scored a technical knock out over "Sparky" McConnell, of the Conemaugh division, in the fourth round of a furious battle in the light weight division.

"Dave" Davis, of the Pittsburgh division, scored the quickest knock-out of the evening when he polished off E. Dermott of the Monongahela division, in 59 seconds. They are welterweights.

Flashing his best form in many months, Stanley Simmons, heavy-weight champion of the Pennsylvania Railroad, K. O'd "Johnny" Toth, of the Pittsburgh division, in the second round of a setto which was a whirlwind battle while it lasted.

In the wrestling bouts, Charliers Svoboda, of the Pittsburgh division, threw W. A. Dutton, of the Monongahela division, in three minutes, 45 seconds, with a half nelson and body scissors. They are lightweights.

Frank Mashone, Pittsburgh division, threw "Tom" Clamm, Monongahela division, in an extra period with a headlock, after they had wrestled to a draw in the regulation session. They are bantamweights.

In the welterweight division, E. J. Yost, Pittsburgh division, threw J. Pozniak, Monongahela division, with a head lock and body hold in one minute, 51 seconds.

"Bob" Mitchell, Pittsburgh division, pinned the shoulders of J. Rinko, Monongahela division, to the mat in 38 seconds. They are middleweights.

Indian Infielders Report Tomorrow.
NEW ORLEANS, March 9.—Today's workout was to be the last in which the Cleveland Indian pitchers and catchers hold the center of the stage alone. The infielders and outfielders are to report for training tomorrow.

Catcher Glenn Myatt has been showing a great hitting eye and predicts he will have a big season at bat. An exhibition game, the first of a series of Sunday games, will be played with the New Orleans Pelicans a week from tomorrow.

Cardinals Win Two Straight.
AVON PARK, Fla., March 9.—After taking two straight from Connie Mack's Athletics, the Cardinals were to take a rest here today, due to an open date. They will play Indianapolis at Sarasota tomorrow.

Another baseball season will start soon.

Once again the eyes of the fans will be focused on the pitching staffs of the various major league clubs. In some instances, eyes may wander away from the pitchers' box to center on some outstanding performer in the infield or the outer gardens, but the fingers, as usual, will get the most attention.

A smart manager customarily balances his twirling staff so that he has a couple of good pitchers on his payroll, but quite often there isn't enough clever southpaws to go around, and they can't be plucked off the trees like cherries in the spring.

There is always a heavy demand for left-handed pitching and the ivory hunter who grabs off a good find while beating around the bushes can consider that he has done a pretty good season's work if he quits right after making his find.

Of the present crop of left-handed flingers, Bob Grove, of the Athletics; Herb Pennock, of the Yankees; Eppa Rixey, of the Reds; Art Nehf, of the Cubs; and Jess Petty, newly acquired by the Pirates from the Brooklyn club, are the best.

None of them, however, can rank with Rube Waddell, the great port-sider who pitched invincible ball for the Philadelphia Athletics during their first championship years in the American League. In fact the present stars can hardly be compared with such fellows as Rube Marquard, Matt Kilroy, Tom Ramsey, Nap Rucker, Eddie Plank, Hooks Wiltse and others who might be mentioned among the old-timers.

Grove probably comes as near being a second Waddell as any of the present day left-handed hurlers. He has pitched consistently good ball for Connie Mack and is looked upon as winner again this year.

However, none of the present port-siders have come forward to challenge Waddell's record in 1904 when he struck out 343 hitters while working for the Athletics. Waddell also hung up a record, still unbeaten, of sixteen strikeouts in a game he pitched for the St. Louis Browns against the Athletics on July 29, 1908.

Pennock has been suffering from neuritis but maintains that he will be ready to take his regular turn this summer. Herb's a tower of strength on the New York team which missed his services when making the home stretch gallop for the pennant last fall. Pennock with all of his ability has never duplicated the record made by Marquard when, during the period between April 11 and July 3, 1912, he recorded nineteen consecutive victories, the greatest performance of a left handed boxman in baseball's history.

Pittsburgh fans are joyful over the acquisition of Jess Petty and they have every reason to do so. Petty is a great pitcher. His presence on the Pirates' staff bolsters up their pennant chances to no small degree. Last season Jess pitched the Dodgers to fifteen victories and that is good work, indeed. He lost fourteen, but a pitcher cannot win ball games unless his team scores and the Brooklyn club were very shy on runs usually when Petty pitched. Jess will do better at Pittsburgh, but he'll probably never equal the mark set by Kilroy when, pitching for the Baltimore American Association team in 1886 at a distance of fifty feet from the home plate, he struck out 505 men, a feat which has endured as a record since that time.

Grove, Pennock, Petty and other port-siders of the present time are sufficiently efficient to have become famous and that's what counts today.

During a recent hunting trip Queen Marie of Yugoslavia wore a masculine hunting costume.

Juniors Land Inter-Class Court Honors

Defeat Sophomores, 26-25; Seniors Trim Frosh.

In the final games of the Inter-class basketball tournament, Thursday afternoon on the high school court, the Juniors took down class title laurels when they nosed out the Sophomores 26 to 25, in a hard fought game. The Seniors won from the Freshmen in the consolation game, 34 to 27. In the first games of the tournament played Wednesday, the Juniors defeated the Freshmen, 41 to 21, while the Sophomores swept the Seniors off their feet, 44 to 12.

Three Browns Missing.
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 9.—The Browns' absence list was one less today. Only three players are now missing from the camp, with the arrival of Frank O'Rourke yesterday. Manush, Blue and McGowan are still absent. A practice game was scheduled for today.

Hornaby Gets Homer.
LOS ANGELES, March 9.—Rogers Hornaby bore the official "okay" of Los Angeles baseball fans today following their first glimpse of him in action here yesterday against the local team of the coast league. Hornaby won the $,000 cash customers when he poked a home run over the left field fence. The Cubs won, 11 to 6.

Giants Go To Laredo.
SAN ANTONIO, March 9.—John McGraw, the little Napoleon of baseball, led his New York Giants today to Laredo, just across the Rio Grande from revolution-torn Mexico. But the Giants are mobilizing on the northern front for two ball games with the San Antonio nine, and not to engage the rebel cohorts in battle.

Loibito, Angola, on the West Coast of Africa, will enlarge its port to accommodate more than 100 vessels.

Valley A. C. Signs Kenny Davis For Four - Rounder On Rudy-Keppen Program

East Liverpool Featherweight Matched With Tommy Gaultier, Wellsville Comer, For Prelim Scrap in Monday Show.

Kenneth Davis, popular East Liverpool welterweight who has been showing more and more every time he goes in a local ring, today was booked by Matchmaker Ray Foutts of the Valley A. C., to battle Tommy Gaultier, the up and coming Wellsville youth, in a four-round feature prelim on the Monday card at Wellsville.

Gaultier and Davis take the place formerly occupied by "Poison" Pizzone and Dominick Gualtier, Tommy's brother. This scrap was called off yesterday as a result of injuries sustained by Pizzone while at work in the Wellsville mill. Pizzone, it is said, is threatened with blood poisoning and Matchmaker Foutts refused to permit him to go on with the scrap.

In his stead, however, Foutts has booked a natural in the Davis Gualtier fracas. Gualtier, who has been working out for the last month, and showing considerable stuff, too, has been clamoring to go against some good boy his own weight and when Davis' name was mentioned, he refused to quail or back down despite the fact that Kenny is rated as one of the best boys in the district.

The other four-rounder will bring together Joe Jeannette, Canton, and Young Danny, Midland, this to be preceded by the three-round curtain raiser.

Immediately after the Davis Gualtier fracas, and preceding the eight-round feature event between Young Rudy of Pittsburgh and Sig Keppen of Beaver Falls is placed the Harry Morris-Nick Caruso six-rounder which will go to a judges' decision this time.

Bobby Lehrman, you know, has taken over the management of Nick Caruso, and the Midland manager will be in Nick's corner when the tough Steel city lad faces Morris.

Lehrman and Byron Foutts, the latter managing Morris, have been rivals in affairs of the fist for some time and this arrangement doesn't help things any. As a result, the pair will no doubt unfurl some of their best and most ferocious scowls at each other from opposite corners Monday night.

Lehrman finally broke down yesterday and admitted he was managing Caruso, the Midland lad, who surprised a lot of the fans in recent fight, and says:

"Well, the Lehrman-Foutts feud is on again. Here's the reason, so rush it out for the benefit of the subscribers."

"I have taken over the management of Nick Caruso and Young Danny, also Young Rodney who is now boxing under the name of Billy Shea, and expect to parade these boys in the near future."

"Here's the dope on Monday's fight. I think Harry Morris is made for Nick, and everyone in our little burg is anxious to see Caruso and Morris come together again without delay. You will see a new kid. And a referee will be out of the question as the count of 10 will be the only decision needed. Caruso will stop Morris and that's all there is to it."

PENNEY COMPANY BUYS 117 STORES

J. E. Hedenquist, manager of the J. C. Penney company, was advised today that his organization has purchased the J. B. Byars company, including the W. J. Lindsay company, recently purchased by the Byars company, and the J. N. McCracken company. The two operate 117 Golden Rule stores in California, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Montana.

The J. B. Byars company, composed of 101 department stores, has their general office in Denver, Colorado, and purchasing office in St. Louis.

The J. N. McCracken company operates 15 stores in Montana and one in North Dakota, with headquarters in Livingston, Mont.

These stores carry a similar line of merchandise as the J. C. Penney company.

The total sales in 1928 for these groups were in the neighborhood of $8,000,000.

With the addition of these chains, the total number of J. C. Penney company stores is 1,212.

Pottery City Week By Week

With Apologies to O. O. McIntyre

Broadway, East Liverpool, may not be Broadway, New York, but it no less looms as an integral part of the Pottery City, for, though it is by no means its longest street it has the distinction of being its widest one.

And it has still another distinction in that it comes nearer than any other within the city of running north and south. Even those with a general eastern and western direction appear to be on the bias. To gain one's bearings, if a bit confused, the way out may be had by a new "sounding" on Broadway.

In its 2,200 feet from the Ohio river to St. Clair avenue, just off Lincoln avenue, at the Horn switch, it crosses six streets and is crossed by the double tracks of the Pennsylvania line and thrice to the north by those of the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company. The latter traverses the north section of the street from St. Clair to Sixth and also from Fifth to Sixth.

It touches First street, or River road, and crosses Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets ere it merges into St. Clair avenue.

Its northeast section carries nearly two blocks of pottery frontage where it is touched by the Standard, Hall China and D. E. McNicol plants. The city's industry on it is further represented by the Potters' Lumber company and its accompanying planing mill. On the southeast end are the Mason Color and Chemical works and the B. Volk junk yard.

Four gasoline stations dot it. On it also is one of the city's chief financial institutions, the Potters' Building and Loan company in the office building of the same name.

Two drug stores peek out of its strategically arranged corners. On it also are the Croxell Chemical company and the Harrison Delcomania Supply company and there are three or more grocery stores abutting it.

The main waiting room of the Steubenville and East Liverpool Traction line fronts it. At the Washington corner is the unique Platoon building, housing a restaurant and confectionery.

And don't forget the postoffice, Carnegie library, high school building, Masonic and Eagles' temples, the B. C. Simms home, a modern apartment house, the Central fire station and a job printing plant and, at the foot of the street, the wharfbat.

The street in the old days at the Second street intersection was one of the busiest spots in the city. There was laid the foundations for later fortunes by some of its residents.

Pedestrians walking along the river near Jethro are authorities for the statement that sea gulls have in the last few days been seen dipping down into the stream in that locality. They are scavengers of the water. Resembling pigeons they are many times larger. They give a decided ocean appearance to the river.

Wild duck have also been seen on the river recently or flying over it which adds to the signs now indicating the proximity of the breaking up of the winter.

Step Into the Room and See Our New Piano

GULBRANSEN PIANOS

"IT'S a new Gulbransen. We had not felt that we could afford a Grand Piano... But now with Gulbransen's new model at $495, we have finally had our life's dream fulfilled... Even Dad (who generally thinks only of the pocket-book) said this morning that we had finally 'arrived'. We are all very proud of our piano... Tens of thousands of homes, heretofore deprived of their life's dream of owning a Grand Piano, will finally have it realized... Here is smart, refined design. Here is golden tone quality, due to the work of the Gulbransen Research Laboratory... Here is staunch construction. Here is durability. Here is the genuine Dupont Duco finish—most durable and easy to keep clean... A very small first payment, the balance in modest monthly installments, will make you the owner of one of these superb Gulbransen Grand Pianos.
